

Without doubt, this hotel is at the "Center of the action". The Wangcome Hotel faces Chiang Rai International Trade Center with its modern department store, and shops offering an exciting selection of silverware, tribal souvenirs, Lanna fashions and Thai music. Within three blocks, there are two main markets with irresistable displays of tropical fruits and vegetables.

Australian, German, Swiss, French, American and Italian restaurants lie within a block of the hotel. And if you're weary from travelling try relaxing with a traditional Thai massage at one of the three parlours close by.

Be sure to spend enough time to enjoy the wonderful variety of attractions in fantastic Chiang Rai Province !

The Famous Yoong Tong

Dancing in the Music Room

Delectable Thai, Chinese, Japanese, and European dishes are prepared by the Wangcome chef at the famous Yoong Tong Restaurant. A romantic mood is conjured by popular ballad music from our lovely songstresses. There's upbeat disco sounds for dancing on into the night.

The bake shop is the big attraction at the moderately-priced Mayura Restaurant. With traditional Thai and 'pop' music background, the Lobby Lounge is ideal for casual or business conversation.

Our friendly and caring Wangcome staff are ready to respond to your every need.

Khun Kon Waterfall

You'll find a host of fascinating things to do and see. Following our pictures from centre top, King Mengrai founded Chiang Rai in 1262 A.D. His statue is at the start of the Mae Sai road. The bridge to Burma at Mae Sai is now open to tourists (with a small visa charge). In nearby Chiang Saen, a short hill climb gives a splendid view of where the three Golden Triangle nations meet.

An elephant ride can take you to one of many cascading waterfalls, or past terraced rice paddies. Doi Tung and Doi Mae Salong offer many scenic treats including a floral sculpture garden at the Princess Mother's palace, enchanting country views, exotic hilltribe costumes and culture, and beautiful Buddhist temples.

You may choose to go rafting from Thaton to Chiang Rai - a two or three day trip on the Kok River. Or, cruise the Maekong River from Chiang Khong.

We càn help you arrange many memorable tours here at the Wangcome !
